

CURTIS BRIDGEMAN MINISTRIES

Curtis Bridgeman is a uniquely anointed worshipper with a blended style generated from his deeply rooted black gospel heritage. He was reared on the music of such gospel forerunners as Andre Crouch, Walter and Tramaine Hawkins, Daryl Coley, Larnelle Harris and The Clark Sisters. Jennifer Holiday was also a major musical influence. As a child growing up in TN, he was taught to sing by his mother and the members of the church he attended. He remembers singing “Sign Me Up For The Christian Jubilee” as a solo to his church at the age of eight. When Bridgeman entered middle school, he met the most influential musical person of his life--Kathy Hughes. She believed in Curtis and in his singing. He recalls she shared with him these words “Curtis, you aren’t just talented, you have a gift... and one day God is going to do great things through you.” These words began his quest to know more about music and about ministry.

Bridgeman studied music and theater and went on to receive his Bachelor’s degree in vocal performance from Lee University where he toured for four years with Lee’s Campus Choir under the direction of Dr. David Horton. Bridgeman traveled with the choir to such places as Germany, Greece, Romania, Hungary and Trinidad and Tobago. Bridgeman was most recently a featured soloist and worship leader with Jimmy Swaggart Ministries (JSM) in Baton Rouge, LA. Bridgeman was with JSM from January 2004 through February 2006. The services were broadcast live via the internet, SonLife Radio Network and aired via television around the world. He is currently an associate pastor at New Vision Ministry Center as well as guest worship leader and psalmist. He along with his wife, Charmaine, and son, Eyan, reside in Louisville, KY.

Mission

We desire to prepare an atmosphere for intimate worship through music by helping others encounter the true and manifested presence of the Lord.

What We Are -- A worship ministry.

Psalm 96 AB “Oh sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all the earth! Sing to the Lord, bless (affectionately praise) His name; show forth His salvation from day to day. Declare His glory among the nations, His marvelous works among all the people. For great is the Lord and greatly to be praised; He is to be reverently feared and worshiped above all gods.”

What We Ask

1 Timothy 5:17 AB “Let the elders who perform the duties of their office well be considered doubly worthy of honor [and of adequate financial support], especially those who labor faithfully in preaching and teaching.”

- A specific request from the venue/pastor/music minister stating the exact amount of time we are to cover with ministry. After this is discussed, an appropriate honorarium will be decided.
- Advertising through bulletins and newspapers, etc. stating that CBM will be ministering at your church with the dates and times indicated.
- Pastoral promotion of our products and support of our ministry.
- Travel expenses, lodging and food.
